This established country hotel is located in a quiet rural setting in Llíber, offering privacy and open countryside views. The property is designed for adult-only accommodation and includes guest facilities such as a restaurant, landscaped gardens, an outdoor swimming pool, private parking, and WiFi throughout. The location provides access to local hiking and cycling routes, while the coastal areas of Benidorm (approximately 40 km) and Gandía (approximately 49 km) are within driving distance. Alicante Airport is around 92 km away. The main building has been constructed using traditional Mediterranean materials, including tosca stone and exposed wooden beams, combined with modern finishes. Interior spaces include open-plan living and dining areas with a... (Ask for More
